Education Meeting.

There are many conflicting rumors making the rounds relative to the investigation the high school authorities are making of the school class organizations. The students will be uneasy until after the meeting of the board of education, when it is expected a report of one of the members of the Ad club who is interested in pushing the sale of tickets:

"The reports which we are receiving from the people who are disposing of the tickets would indicate that the sale is better than we had hoped for in view of the fact that weather conditions are not favorable. We will have disposed the fact that weather conditions are not favorable. We will have disposed of 800 tickets late today. I am basing these figures you understand from the New York Stock Market.

Snake Venom Cures Consumption.

Washington, March 4.—Rattlesnake venom has been used successfully as a cure for tuberculosis, scoording to a report to the Maryland state board of health. Dr. Joseph H. Thompson of Have you been Aetnalzed?

The Snow at Goodland.

Goodland, Kan. March 4.—A heavy, damp snow struck this city about 6 p. m. Saturday, driven by a strong wind from the northeast. The snowfall was continuous until Monday morning, and amounted to about seven inches. This snow, with the big one earlier in the winter, will put the ground in the best possible condition and will make the crop prospects better at this time of the year than at any time during the past six years.

BANK ROBBER KILLED.

Two Badly Wounded in Attempting to Make Their Escape,

Montreal, March 4 .- One of five robbers who broke into a branch of the Royal bank on Saturday at Montreal West, a junction of the Canadian Pacific railroad, five miles west of the city, was killed in a running fight with citizens. Residents of the neighborhood got the alarm before the gang had obtained any loot. After an exchange of shots the other four robbers escaped leaving the body of their companion.

The attempted robbery was the most daring in the history of Canada. Late last night a Canadian Pacific railway watchman saw the men loitering around the station and raced them without being noticed. Early today has saw them crawling through a window of the bank, the bars having been sawed through. He notified the police and a posse surrounded the building The bandits were called upon to surrender. Suddenly there was a terrific dynamite explosion and the bank was completely wrecked. In the confusion the robbers got away but were cornered later in a shack on the outskirts of the

The chief of police and his son, in the face of a heavy revolver fire, en-tered the building and engaged in a duel with the men. One robber was killed outright and two more fell badly wounded from the fire of the police.

A bullet that hit a heavy table in the center of the room glanced off and seriously wounded Charles Fitzpatrick, son of the chief. The remaining four robbers broke for cover and later were again surrounded, two more falling under the fire of the police. Nothing that would identify the dead bandit was found on his body although sentiment showed itself when a photograph of a pretty girl, a wedding ring wrapped in tissue paper and a lock of ed in tissue paper and a lock of voman's hair was discovered.
